Changes:

- Name:
 - From: Google
 - To: Alphabet
- Address:
 - From: 1600 Amphitheatre Parkway Mountain View, CA 94043, USA
 - To: 1600 Amphitheatre Parkway Mountain View, California 94043, United States of America
- Duns Number:
 - From: 100

Validation of Changes:

- Name Change (Google to Alphabet):
 - Validation: This change can be validated through credible sources such as official announcements or news articles. Google's parent company restructured in 2015 and changed its name to Alphabet. This information is well-documented in various reputable news outlets and corporate announcements.
 - Date of Change: October 2, 2015 (Date of Alphabet's official announcement of restructuring)
- Address Change:
 - Validation: The address change from "Mountain View, CA" to "Mountain View, California" can be considered a typographical or formatting change, as both refer to the same location. However, the change in the format "United States of America" instead of "USA" should be validated. This validation can be done through official records or corporate filings.
 - Date of Change: The change in address format might not have a specific documented date, as it could be part of routine updates. However, no substantial change in the address is evident, only a change in format.
- Duns Number Change:
 - Validation: DUNS numbers are unique identifiers assigned to businesses by Dun & Bradstreet. Validating this change requires access to DUNS database records or official announcements from the company.
 - Date of Change: Without access to the specific DUNS database or official announcements, the exact date of this change cannot be determined with the provided information.

Summary:

- The name change from Google to Alphabet can be validated through credible sources, with the change occurring on October 2, 2015.
- The address change involves a minor formatting change, while the change in the representation of the country from "USA" to "United States of America" does not significantly alter the location. Validation of this change might not yield specific dates.
- The Duns Number change cannot be validated without access to DUNS database records or official announcements.
